Talk Topics

When has someone broken a promise to you? What was that like ?

What are some promises that you've seen kept or broken by politicians? What would happen in the world today if people always kept their promises as God does?

What are some of the promises God has made and followed through on?

How can we know that God will come through on all His promises?

Complete the following sentence: "I'm glad God keeps His promises because…"

Daily Challenges

Choose one or more to do this week.

- Since God is faithful to us, make a commitment to be faithful to Him this week. Think of a promise you can make to God and pray daily about it; be as faithful as you can be in keeping that promise.
- Share with a non-Christian how God has kept His promises to you, and what promises God gives you through His Word that you're holding on to right now.
- Ask for God's help during a tough situation or obstacle you're facing this week. Don't be shy about quoting God's promises as you do, give God an opportunity to show his faithfulness in keeping those promises.

Further Study and Discussion throughout the week

Use the following passages and questions to explore additional Biblical insights about your heart.

Monday–Psalm 119:148
What promises from God's Word can you meditate on? Why is it helpful to continually think about them?

Tuesday–Joshua 21:43-45
What in your life shows that you trust God to keep His promises?

Wednesday–Psalm 119:137-140
God's promises have been tested. What does this mean to you? How have you seen God's promises proven true in your own life?

Thursday–Psalm 145:13
How are God's love and his faithfulness connected? What does the word all in this verse signify to you?

Friday–2 Corinthians 1:18-20
What does it mean that God's promises are "yes" and "amen" through Jesus? What does Jesus' life and death on earth show you about God's faithfulness?

Saturday–Matthew 5:33-37
How would you describe the kinds of promises you make? When you say "yes" and "no," is it meaningful and trustworthy? What can you do to better reflect God's faithfulness?
