Talk Topics

How do you think God does or doesn't use angels today?

In what ways do you believe God wants to help you?

Tell stories from your family history about people who experienced miracles or help from angels.

Finish the statement, "If I have an angel watching over me, I wish the angel would..." Discuss answers. Are there other ways to accomplish what people wish for?

What comes to mind when you hear the word angel? How much of our impressions are shaped by popular culture, how much by experience or hearsay, and how much by biblical accounts?

Daily Challenges

Choose one or more to do this week.

- Consider doing some extra research on your own by reading the book Angels by Billy Graham, a scripturally sound treatise on the subject matter.
- Review Hebrews 1:13-14. Imagine for a moment what a personal encounter with a ministering spirit might be like. What would the angel look like? What would the angel say to you? How would you respond? Jot down a few thoughts on paper and then pray, thanking God for sending angels.
- Spend extra time in worship this week. Picture yourself in the throne room of heaven, see Revelation 4 for more details, and join your voice with the voices of God's angels in praising the Lord God Almighty.
