Project Angel Tree

Angels are now available at both campuses, pick yours up today, or sign up online at www.lcm.church/uplift-city. Gifts need to be returned by December 6.

Mitten Tree

We are collecting hats, mittens, scarves; any size and any color. Donations can be dropped off at either location.

In Person and Online Worship

We are excited to be able to worship together again as a church body! We understand that not everyone is able to or comfortable gathering again immediately, so we will continue our streaming online worship offerings, see our website for details.

For more information and other LCM Happenings, visit our website at WWW.LCM.CHURCH or check out our monthly LCM "Inspire" Newsletter.

Weekly Calendar

All activities, meetings, and group leaders need to contact the church office for health & cleaning training before they can reconvene. Please contact the church office to make sure your leader has made arrangements to be able to continue using the facilities.

You can find information about the buildings, LCM activities, and streaming programming at WWW.LCM.CHURCH/FAITH or call the church office with questions.

Rejoice in the Lord always. I will say it again:
Rejoice!
